CAMP DIRECTORS
EILEEN GHENT

Head Women's Lacrosse Coach

Eileen Ghent was announced as the fifth women's lacrosse head coach in program history on August 21, 2015 after serving four seasons as an assistant coach. Eileen Ghent joined Monmouth University's women's lacrosse staff in the summer of 2011. The Silver Spring, Maryland native spent the last four seasons coaching the Monmouth defense, serving as the recruiting coordinator and was the primary director of MU's numerous camps and clinics. Prior to the 2014 season, Ghent was elevated to the title of Associate Head Coach. During that time she helped Monmouth to four consecutive conference tournaments, two NCAA Tournament appearances, two conference tournament titles and a regular season championship. Monmouth was 26-8 in conference play while Ghent was an assistant coach.

STEPHANIE ANDERSON

Assistant Women's Lacrosse Coach

Former Hawk standout Stephanie Anderson joined the Monmouth coaching staff in August of 2014. Anderson is in her 2nd season with the hawks as the offensive coach. She primarily works with the Monmouth offense while aiding in recruiting efforts. Anderson transferred to Monmouth prior to the 2014 season, finished first on the team in scoring with 26 goals and second in points with 28 from her attack position. The Rutgers transfer appeared in 17 of Monmouth's 18 games while leading the team in free position goals. Anderson was a pivotal piece to the Blue & White's first year in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, earning All-MAAC Tournament honors. Academically, she was named to the IWLCA Academic All-Honor Roll and is currently pursuing her Master's Degree in School Counseling. Anderson was an All-Big East lacrosse player at Rutgers where she tallied 66 goals and 77 points. She was a prep star for Shoreham Wading River High School in Long Island, New York.

MEGHAN CLOTHIER

Assistant Women's Lacrosse Coach

Monmouth announced the hiring of Meghan Clothier in August of 2015. Clothier comes to West Long Branch after spending last year in England coaching at a number of club teams and clinics. She also spent time as a coach with two different Philadelphia based lacrosse clubs and served as a counselor at the Philadelphia Lacrosse Showcase Camp, working primarily with goalies. Clothier began her college career at George Mason University before transferring to Temple University, where she appeared in almost 40 games for the Owls. The Brooklandville, MD native started all 17 games in between the pipes as a senior, finishing with 93 saves while ranking third on the team in ground balls. Clothier graduated from Temple in 2013 with a BA in English.

ABOUT THE CAMP

The camp is geared towards beginner and intermediate players, but adjustments will be made so that advanced players will also receive excellent instruction at the camps. Each day campers will be separated into small groups and given instruction covering many skills and concepts. Campers will also be taught tactics in both small and larger team play.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

The Hawks Girls Lacrosse Camp is designed to help each camper improve her skills while gaining a better understanding of the sport. The participants will be grouped according to ability and age in order to attain the maximum benefit from the instruction. Our goal is for each camper to individually improve in a positive team environment.

LUNCH

Lunch will be provided by the University's dining service in the campus dining hall. Snacks and drinks will be available for purchase at the camp snack bar.

THINGS TO BRING

All campers should bring the following items to participate in all activities; no equipment will be provided.

- *Mouth guard
- *Lacrosse stick
- *Goggles
- *Bathing suit and towel
- *Water bottle
- *Goalie equipment (goalies)
